

A Personal Covenant

How I Can Help My Church Evangelize

_____ I can and will joyfully worship God in my church every Sunday, unless I am physically unable.

_____ I can and will seek help with what I know to be my spiritual shortcomings.

_____ I can and will pray regularly

- for my own growth in faith and service
- for my family, relatives, and friends
- for my church, its members, and its ministry
- for my colleagues and neighbors, for my community, my country, and the world
- for my neighbors in every land, especially those in any kind of need

_____ I can and will try to be friendly to people I see in church, especially to visitors.

_____ I can and will try to have a positive attitude toward my church.

_____ I can and will support my church financially in a spirit of liberality.

_____ I can and will contribute in some way to the church's program.

_____ I can and will invite others to church.

_____ I can and will encourage others to use their gifts.

_____ I can and will try to listen more attentively.

_____ I can and will try to be open to change.

_____ I can and will try to remind others to do the things on this list.

_____ I can and will

_____ I can and will

As an expression of my desire to help the church fulfill its ministry of evangelism,
I covenant with God through Jesus Christ and with my fellow church members to do the things indicated above for the next 6 months.
